

STATE IS PROBING DEEP MYSTERY OF THE TODD ESTATE

Comptroller Seeking to Collect
Tax on Property of Woman
Strangely Killed.

Intest in the case of Mrs. Margaret Todd, whose body was found in a railroad cut near Philadelphia in 1908, has been revived through the efforts of the State Comptroller to collect a transfer tax on her estate. After Mrs. Todd's death there began an involved legal fight on the part of several Chicago heirs for a share in the estate. It was found that Mrs. Todd had made a deed of trust which gave her daughter, Mrs. Frank Tousser, the income from the property.

The Chicago heirs contested this deed of trust and it was carried up to the Court of Appeals, which a year ago decided the deed was a transfer of property made to take effect at death. This ended the fight of the other heirs. The State Comptroller a few weeks ago came across this decision of the Court of Appeals and decided to collect the transfer tax.

A hearing was called last Wednesday before Appraiser Sol. Goldenkrantz in the office of the State Comptroller in an effort to find the present holders of Mrs. Todd's estate that might be brought against them to collect the transfer tax. But little was revealed at that hearing, and another one was set for next Wednesday. Appraiser Goldenkrantz is being assisted in his investigations by John A. Jenkins, an attorney, of No. 125 Broadway.

It is known that a large part of the old Todd estate is held by Georganna Norma Hastings, a daughter of George Gordon Hastings, who married Mrs. Frank Tousser, Mrs. Todd's daughter. It is not known what became of the personal property, such as jewelry and cash. It was said in the State Comptroller's office and in the office of Mr. Jenkins to-day that the entire estate will run above $500,000, and also that considerable difficulty in finding what became of the personal estate of Mrs. Todd is anticipated.

JACK STANDING'S JAGS ONLY 'HAWL' OF 'THREE SHEETS'

Gets a Bit Wozy, Y' Know, but Never Intoxicated, He Tells Magistrate.

Matrimonial difficulties in the theatrical profession which included a woman lawyer, an indulgent wife and a husband with a blind English accent kept Magistrate Breen busy for half an hour in Toronto Court today and gave him a new insight into the domestic relations of "the profession."

Mrs. Catherine Standing, member of Louis Waller's company playing "Monsieur Beaucaire," was complainant against her husband, Jack Standing, who is with the Belasco forces. Mrs. Standing, dressed like the proverbial modest strutting widow, was accompanied by Miss Lucille Pugh, her attorney.

THE GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY CONVINCES THE MOST SKEPTICAL.

I want to tell you what Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root did for me. I was completely broken down. My kidneys hurt me so that when I was down, I could not get up unless I took hold of something to pull myself up with.

I tried different kinds of kidney pills but they did me no good. Someone told me to try Swamp-Root. I had no faith in it, but to please my wife I purchased one bottle and took it. I saw it was beginning to help me and kept on taking it until I had taken six bottles and it straightened me out all right.

Swamp-Root is the only medicine that did me any good. I thought I would write this letter and tell everyone that is afflicted as I was to take Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. The six bottles I took cost me five dollars, and did me five hundred dollars' worth of good.

Yours very truly,
GEORGE H. HUBER,
Atlanta, Ill.

State of Illinois

Logan County

I, M. M. Hoese, a Notary Public in and for the said county of Logan, in the State of Illinois, do hereby certify that George H. Huber, known to me to be the same person whose name is subscribed to the foregoing instrument, appeared before me this day in person and acknowledged that he signed, sealed and delivered the said instrument as his free and voluntary act.

Given under my hand and Notarial Seal this 13th day of July, A. D. 1914.

M. M. HOESE,
Notary Public.

Letter to
Dr. Kilmer & Co.,
Binghamton, N. Y.

Write What Swamp-Root Will Do For You.
Send to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. It will convince any one. You will also receive a booklet of value in information, telling all about the kidneys and bladder. When writing, be sure and mention the New York Evening World. Regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

who was offered in prominent morning paper. The Magistrate glanced at the lawyer as she spoke. He thought for a moment she was interrupting the Court. "Are you an attorney?" he asked. "For three years," replied Miss Pugh. "I never saw you before; go ahead," said the Court.

The lawyer in no uncertain terms arraigned Standing, who looked unutterably bored and stroked his upper lip. She told the Court he had annoyed his wife by coming to the theatre where she was playing and asking her for money. A week ago, according to the charge, he had struck his wife when she refused to give him money for drink. Mrs. Standing told the Court she was able to lose her position unless her husband was restrained from annoying her. She said they were married last October and separated Christmas.

"Were you drunk when you did these things?" asked the Magistrate of the actor. "Oh, no, not drunk," answered the husband. "Er—I was never intoxicated in my life. I might have been a bit wozy, y'know."

"Sort of three sheets in the wind," suggested the Magistrate. "Not so much, y'know, about half of three sheets would quite express it."

"Did you strike your wife?" "Dear me, no. Not at all. I wouldn't do that. I love my wife too much to strike her. I did call on her and ask her to make up with me after our quarrel. We were about to be friends again, weren't we?" turning to Mrs. Standing. "Do you want me to look him up?" said the Magistrate.

"Oh, no, not that Judge, something else," pleaded the wife. Magistrate Breen rested his cold eye on the defendant.

"Then I will parole you in your own custody, and if you annoy your wife again I will sentence you to six months in jail. Can you read yourself sufficiently to understand that?"

"Six months in jail? Very fair. Your Honor. I will annoy her, er—I love her too much, y'know. Thanks, awfully."

MONEY FOR YOU

Listen! Read How
You May Turn a Good Idea Into Money

1st Prize $100 | 2d Prize $50 | 3d Prize $25

Rewards are Offered by Discoverer of Partola to get ideas to be used to advertise the merits of Partola in American newspapers, because, although advertised only in the foreign papers, it has had an enormous sale in all parts of the United States.

Encouraged by the sales and success, we wish to make known the merits of Partola amongst our English-speaking countrymen.

The American people are now to be told in their own language the benefits of Partola, so these REWARDS ARE OFFERED for the best ideas to spread the good news.

Now Read the Conditions of the Rewards Offered:

No professional advertisement writers can compete for the rewards, because only words that come from the heart of the people who have received benefits from this great remedy are wanted.

Nearly every one can tell a good story, so every one has an opportunity to be rewarded. After the day's work is done, Father, Mother and even the Children can work out their ideas and put them on paper and later on arrange them in the form of an advertisement.

Besides the 3 big prizes every one whose advertisement appears in The Evening World will receive One Dollar.

A BRIGHT BOY OR GIRL MAY GET $1, because their ideas may be told to the parents, who may put them in the form of an advertisement.

Partola wants ideas and advertisements, but we won't judge your work. He has arranged for a committee of three newspaper men to decide who wins the prizes. The names of this committee are as follows: The manager of the M. C. Well Advertising Agency, 38 Park Row, New York; Mr. Hollis Corbin, Advertising Expert, 225 Fifth Avenue, New York; and Mr. David J. Randall, special newspaper representative, 225 Fifth Avenue, New York.

Letters of competitors must be in the hands of the discoverer June 1, 1914, at the latest. They must be addressed:

PARTOLA CO., Prime No. 160 2d Avenue—Dept., NEW YORK CITY

Attention! For those who wish to compete we shall briefly state what the blood and stomach cleaning candies really mean.

PARTOLA is a preparation which puts all other remedies in the shade. It has a pleasing peppermint taste. It is a mildly acting laxative and cleanses the blood. Made up in candy form.

PARTOLA may be given to infants and old people in proportionate doses. It causes no pains or cramps whatever.

PARTOLA has been tried and is praised by hundreds of thousands of people.

These are in short Partola's advantages and on this basis we recommend this wonderful remedy to the public.

In order to facilitate matters for those who wish to participate in this contest, we give below the names of drug stores where you can find Partola always on hand.
